Examiner's Statement

Applicant's arguments have been considered but are not found persuasive. Applicant argues that Yumibe teaches away from the previously proposed combination. The examiner disagrees. Extolling the virtue of one type of connector, as Yumibe does, does not teach away from also using a different type connector. In re Dance, 48 USPQ.2d 1635, 1638 (Ct. App. Fed. Cir. 1998).
